Company Overview

FP Goodwin, Co. is a food distributor based in Portland, Maine with a secondary facility in Brewer, ME. We are a fourth-generation company, with decades of combined retail, distribution, operations and food experience. While our core business sources, sells and delivers products from Maine, we do distribute products from the entirety of the New England region and, in a few cases, farther "away." No matter where the products we distribute are produced, we actively seek those companies and products that are owned and operated by phenomenal people, with a passion for exceptional food.

By pooling products that are going in the same direction and offering customer maintenance, we can provide entry to the marketplace for small farms, producers, and wholesalers. We work tirelessly to provide timely, impeccable service from one end of the supply chain to the other.

FP Goodwin is on a mission to be the leader in the distribution of food products throughout Maine and New England through impeccable customer service and a commitment to quality from one end of the supply chain to the other. We envision a supply chain that provides high quality, locally produced, high growth products to retailers and consumers throughout Maine and New England.

FP Goodwin values

- Customer Service: Impeccable, timely, professional service. We listen, engage and build relationships.
- Integrity and Authenticity: We own our mistakes. We are honest and direct.
- Quality: The highest quality of products and services...always.
- Community: We value and respect our friends, neighbors, competitors and business partners to the highest degree.

Working at FP Goodwin, Co.

We are a (very) small but mighty team of folks who are passionate about our mission. As a small business we celebrate the opportunities that exist today as well as those we will find along the way. Our work is accomplished on-the-road, from our homes and at occasional, in-person meetings. For this specific position the workday is spent at our warehouse on Riverside Dr. in Portland, ME. To be successful at FP Goodwin, Co. a thorough understanding of and appreciation for the small business environment is essential.

The quantity of staff as well as the variety of positions available will increase as we continue to expand our footprint and catalog. We look internally first for promotable individuals. As such, opportunities do exist for lateral and vertical movement within FP Goodwin, Co.
